

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, LuVilla Weber has devoted 32 years, 10 months and 10 days to the service of the Whetstone Valley Nursing Home, now known as Beverly Healthcare Center in Milbank, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, LuVilla first began employment at Whetstone on July 1, 1970, as a nursing assistant; and,

Whereas, Through the years, LuVilla has faithfully cared for the residents of the nursing facility, and has witnessed many changes in the healthcare system, and always adapted to the changes knowing that her first and most important task was the care of the residents; and,

Whereas, LuVilla was aware of and practiced resident/patient rights long before others were just learning and talking about that issue; and,

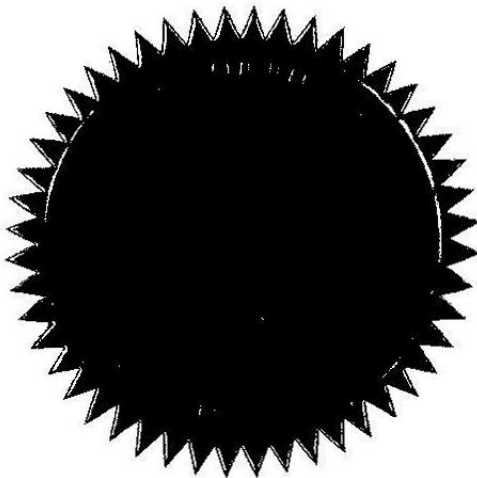

Whereas, LuVilla will be greatly missed by staff and residents at the Beverly Healthcare Center, but they all wish her well in her retirement on July 10, 2003; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments of this fine employee:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 10, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with LuVilla's family, friends, and co-workers to wish her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds
